

As an American, I am given the right to privacy by the Bill of Rights. Telemarketers knowingly infringed upon that right and are now hurting because of this law. Who are you here to protect? The American or the faceless business?